SUMMARY

Self-taught full-stack developer shipping production sites since 2023, with two live sites currently serving real users: a tattoo shop directory with 3,000+ records and a family-owned hotel's main booking site. Finishing a B.S. in Computer Science at WGU with active Java coursework. Strong in JavaScript and TypeScript, learning Java, and used to picking up new tools quickly while balancing full-time work.

PROJECTS

InkLink — Tattoo Shop Directory

Next.js, TypeScript, PostgreSQL, Prisma, Google Maps & Places APIs | inklinktattoofinder.com | github.com/JamesxFarris/InkLinkTattooFinder 2024 – Present

- 3,000+ tattoo shops searchable by location, with real-time "open now" status calculated across US time zones
- Map-based discovery and filtering powered by Google Maps and Google Places, with normalized address and ratings data
- End-to-end build: Next.js frontend, PostgreSQL schema with Prisma, duplicate detection on new submissions, Stripe subscriptions, and SEO with structured data

Holiday Sands North — Hotel Website

Vanilla HTML, CSS, JavaScript | holidaysandsnorth.com | github.com/JamesxFarris/HSN 2025

- Production marketing and booking site for a family-owned oceanfront hotel; integrated third-party reservation engine and embedded Google Maps
- Dynamic event calendar with month filtering, responsive image galleries, and full mobile responsiveness across 15+ room types
